Moj Maro

-Albanian; introduced by Lee Otherholt at Florida Camp 2003-

-Albanian lyrics and translation courtesy of Altin Gjymishka-

Ku e ka Maro-a shtëpinë?

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Ku e ka Maro-a shtëpinë?

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Which is Maro's house?

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Which is Maro's house?

Moj Maro, moj Mari

O tek porta me llamarinë

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Tek porta me llamarinë

Moj Maro, moj Mari

The one with the tin gate.

Moj Maro, moj Mari

The one with the tin gate.

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Po c'janë ata që vejnë e vijnë

Moj Maro, moj Mari?

C'janë ata që vejnë e vijnë

Moj Maro, moj Mari?

Who are those coming and going ?

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Who are those coming and going?

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Duan të prishin krushqinë

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Duan të prishin krushqinë

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Ones wanting to break our(family) alliance

Moj Maro, moj Mari

They want to break the alliance

Moj Maro, moj Mari.

Krushqinë s'e prishin dotë

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Krushqinë s'e prishin dotë

Moj Maro, moj Mari

But they can't break the alliance

Moj Maro, moj Mari

They can't break the alliance

Moj Maro, moj Mari

O se kemi miqësi të fortë

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Se kemi miqësi te fortë

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Because our families are strongly connected,

Moj Maro, moj Mari

Our families are strongly connected

Moj Maro, moj Mari.

Pronunciation guide: ë= uh; j=ee

Background information: Maro is a girl's name; 'Moj Maro, moj Mari' means only 'Hey Mary, hey little Mary'.

Someone comes in Maro's village asking where is her house. A relative of Maro's husband answers this question as well as the next one, about the people coming and going from Maro's yard (same as the one of her parents in-law). They are just gossipers, trying to break Maro's marriage (and by that the alliance between Maro's family and the family of her husband).
